Enter the 3rd Annual Hallo-weenie Costume Contest!

Everyone loves to dress up for Halloween. Now your pet can be part of the fun too! At Larry and Joe's Plumbing Supplies, we hold an annual Halloween costume contest just for pets. The contest is held in honor of our special, canine employees—Rucks, our junior, general manager; Brown, our office food thief; Will, the office gangster; Mia, the big, big boss. This contest is a fun, creative way for you to acknowledge the special four-legged friend in your life---and to get a chance to receive a valuable prize.

To enter the contest, simply mail us a picture of your pet in his/her Halloween costume. All breeds are welcome to participate. Entry deadline is October 31, 2007. When you send your photo, be sure to include your name, phone number, your pet's name and breed. Please note that all photographs become the property of Larry and Joe's Plumbing Supplies. They will not be returned. So don't send your only copy! The top 3 winners will receive the following prizes:

1st prize: A Pullout Kitchen Faucet donated by Moen and a Bathroom Faucet from Banner

2nd prize: A Pullout Kitchen Faucet donated by Danze

3rd prize: $50.00 gift certificate to Larry & Joes Plumbing Supplies (for in-store use only)

And of course, we won't forget our special, four-legged contestants. Each winner will receive a bag of Natural Planet Organic treats from Breese's Pet Depot: 25832 McBean Parkway, Valencia, CA.

In addition, the first place winner will receive a gift basket from Starpups Depot: 25818 Hemmingway Avenue, Stevenson Ranch, CA. Second and third place winners will be given an additional package of canine goodies. Your pets will be howling with delight when they receive their rewards!

The winners will be announced sometime in November. Each prize winner will be notified by phone. Winners will be chosen based upon who looks the scariest and the most dressed up. So let your imaginations run wild. Have fun. And send your photos to our honorable four-legged judges:
