

PLAYLAND DOG BOARDING

The place dogs love to go

Introducing the best place to leave your pet while you're on vacation...where they'll get plenty of love, attention, and playtime!

It's time to look forward to an exciting trip with your family and kids. A whole week long. You've planned lots of fun things to do and exciting new places to see.

But what about Joey, your beloved family pet. The trip would be too long and stressful for him. And you wonder where on earth could you leave him where he would be happy and get the attention he needs.

You can't bear the thought of leaving him at the vet's office where he'll be stuck in a cage all day with absolutely no attention. Or at the local kennel where you know he won't get any exercise or playtime.

Dear pet owner,

I sympathize with your concerns. As a long time pet owner myself, I know how important your pet is to you. You want the absolute best for him. And you want him to feel loved and cared for, especially when you're on vacation or a business trip.

That's why we are offering you this unique service.

At Playland Dog Sitting, we do more than just board dogs. We also love them... pamper them...and play with them several times a day.

When you leave your dog with us, they won't be stuck in a cage all day and completely ignored.

Instead, they'll receive the one-on -one attention we know you want them to have.

Now you can enjoy a relaxing vacation, knowing your pet is getting the loving care he deserves!

In addition to all the love and attention your dog will get, he will also be able to enjoy lots of playtime.

We let the dogs run and play in our securely-fenced yard nearly six times day.

Every few hours your dog gets a chance to be outside and enjoy a little exercise. That adds up to more playtime and attention than most dogs normally get while at home.

Studies have proven that exercise helps reduce stress and anxiety. So if you're worried about your dog being anxious while you are away, you can put your fears to rest. The exercise and playtime your dog enjoys will relax his nerves and settle his mind. He'll have so much fun playing and running around he won't even know he's at a kennel.

While most dogs are sad and melancholy when their owners leave them, your dog will be having the time of his life!

The kind of interaction your dog needs!

Not only will your dog be able to romp and play in the yard and get all the loving care he needs ...he'll also be able to make new doggy friends and enjoy dog-to-dog interaction.

When you bring your pet to Playland Dog Boarding, he will be given an exciting opportunity to learn strong doggy socialization skills. And have fun doing it.

Your beloved pet will be able to romp around with other dogs. Play ball or fressbie with his best friends...run doggy races and just get to know other dogs.

"But my dog isn't social" you say, "she has never been around other dogs before."

That's no problem. If you'd prefer your dog to play alone, or go on personal walks instead, we can do that too.

Remember: we are here to serve you and your pet.

What's absolutely fantastic about our service is that dog's love to come here!

When you leave your dog at a normal kennel or a vet's office, they seem utterly depressed. They look at you with sad eyes... try to follow you to your car... or stare at your retreating frame with pitiful whining. They know there're going to be left alone— without any love or attention the whole time your gone.

But that's not the case when you bring them here.

Customers tell us that as soon they turn up our driveway, their dog gets all excited. They know their going to doggy camp. And their happy about it.

They jump out of the car, excited to be here— they know there in for a special treat— lots of games, toys and friends. Most of the dogs that stay with us, don't even look back when their owner's leave. They head straight up to the play yard, eager to join the romp and fun.

Now you can relax and even enjoy dropping your pet off!

Now you can enjoy your vacation without worrying or feeling guilty about leaving your pet. No more heartrending goodbyes. No more anxious nights of worrying whether or not your pet is doing okay. Just lots of fun and relaxation for both of you.

Here's what some of our satisfied customers have to say!

"It's just like dropping your kid off at summer camp. Jacks just loves to come here. She doesn't even pay any attention to me or even seem to care that I'm leaving!"

—Joe B.

"My little dog, Pekie, loves to come and visit Playland. She has tons of fun playing with the other dogs. When I come and bring her home she is depressed for days. I think she misses all her friends!"

—Grace Y.

"I have an energetic lab puppy, who just loves to play! I knew she wouldn't be happy just being left in a kennel all day. So I brought her to Playland where she has a blast playing with all the other dogs."

—Gail D.

"My two little girls, Nadine and Peggy Sue, are very spoiled dogs. I won't leave them anywhere except at Playland, because I know they get spoiled and played with there! Before I discovered your services I refused to leave my dogs anywhere!"

—Dot L.

"This is the only place I've ever left my dogs where they don't shake when they arrive! They actually seem happy to be here!"

—Pat R.

Afraid to leave your dog because he is exceptionally shy? Or has a special need?

If your dog is easily stressed by change... suffers from severe separation anxiety... or is overwhelmingly shy, we can arrange to keep your dog inside our house where she will feel completely safe and secure. She can sit on our laps when we watch TV. Or even cuddle up besides us as we work in the office.

We know that all dogs need special love and attention, but some need an extra-big dose to keep them feeling secure and happy.

That's kind of like Zeke, a little Pomeranian we recently watched. Zeke is extremely shy and timid. He was scared of the other dogs and just wanted to be held and cuddled. His owner was nervous about leaving him, because she was afraid he would get really stressed.

But we brought Zeke into the house, where he stayed with us for nearly a week. We took him outside for his own little walks, and held him throughout the day. Zeke was perfectly happy and calm the entire time his owner was gone. He didn't seem to be anxious or stressed in the least. And when his mommy came to pick him up he was perky and happy.

Then there was Skeeter, a Lhasa Apso, who had just had eye surgery.

Her eye was still really sensitive and needed medicine three times a day. Skeeter's owner wanted to leave her somewhere where she knew she would be safe and get the kind of care she needed. That's why she brought her to us.

We kept Skeeter in the house where we could keep an eye on her. We also diligently applied the medicine to her eye like her owner had instructed.

Thanks to our watchful care, Skeeter didn't stop getting the care she needed when her owner had to be gone.

Quality care that fits your budget!

By now you're probably wondering how in the world you can afford a service like this.

But guess what? You can!

We charge a flat rate of $10 a day per dog.

Our service is affordable. That means you can give your pet the absolute best, without going broke. Most kennels charge between $15-$25 per day just to keep your dog there. And if you want your dog to have a walk or be given any extra attention whatsoever, you'll have to pay extra for that. But when you use our services, all of that comes in the package.

So you're getting a real sweet deal!

But wait... there's more!

If your dog is on a special diet that requires extra preparation... needs daily medication... or requires a topical medicine on the eye or skin, we'll do all of that at absolutely no extra charge to you.

So let's review real quick

What does your dog get when they come here?

- Lots of love and attention
- Plenty of playtime

- Social interaction with other doggy friends
- Individualized attention that cater's to your dog's specific needs

When you take your dog to a normal kennel or vet's office, they don't get any of the personalized attention we offer. No, they're just stuck in a kennel all day long...all by themselves...left to wonder when their mommy or daddy will come back for them.

But when you bring your dog to us, we'll give them the attention and loving care they can't get anywhere else.

So why ruin anymore of your vacations by worrying about your pet? Or worse yet, why refuse to take a vacation because you're afraid to leave your baby at a stuffy vet's office?

Give your dog a chance to enjoy an exciting vacation of his own at our facility.. And give yourself a chance to relax and enjoy your travels.
